

THE 2007 CARNEGIE JUNIOR FELLOWS CONFERENCE
Is U.S. PRIMACY FADING?
SEARCHING FOR ANSWERS AT HOME AND ABROAD

| | | |
|----------------------|---|---|
| 8:30-9:00AM | REGISTRATION & CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST | |
| 9:00-9:45AM | KEYNOTE ADDRESS Is U.S. PRIMACY FADING? | AMBASSADOR ROBERT HUNTER U.S. Permanent Representative to NATO, 1993-97 Senior Advisor, RAND Corporation OPENING REMARKS BY JESSICA T. MATHEWS PRESIDENT, CARNEGIE ENDOWMENT |
| 9:45-10:30AM | ASKING "WHAT WILL THE U.S. THINK?" Will states continue to factor in U.S. views when making major foreign policy decisions or will states look elsewhere when assessing the possible diplomatic costs of new policies? Will we increasingly see major global challenges being addressed and solved without the U.S.? | RANDALL SCHRIVER Armitage International JAMES O'BRIEN Albright Group Moderated by MINXIN PEI Carnegie Endowment |
| 10:40-11:30AM | BREAKOUT SESSIONS TRACK 1: This session will assess which countries other than the United States may influence policy decision making globally. TRACK 2: This session will ask what might –or will– keep the U.S. at the top of policy agendas everywhere. | MODERATORS Julia Choucair Minxin Pei George Perkovich Peter Scoblic |
| 11:30-11:45AM | REPORT BACK FROM BREAKOUT SESSIONS | |
| 11:45-12:45PM | NETWORKING LUNCH | |
| 12:45-1:30PM | NEW THREATS, NEW CAPABILITIES? What should the U.S. do to effectively adapt its strategic tools to the realities of modern conflict and threats? In what ways could U.S. policy be improved to reflect the changing security landscape? | STEPHEN BIDDLE Council on Foreign Relations OLGA OLIKER RAND Corporation Moderated by GEORGE PERKOVICH Carnegie Endowment |
| 1:40-2:30PM | BREAKOUT SESSIONS TRACK 1: This session will address the new challenges posed by asymmetric warfare and non-state actors. TRACK 2: This session will ask if manpower or technological superiority will prevail. | MODERATORS Deepti Choubey Frederic Grare Michael O'Hanlon Michael Swaine |
| 2:30-2:45PM | REPORT BACK FROM BREAKOUT SESSIONS | |
| 2:45-3:00PM | BREAK | |
| 3:00-3:50PM | NO LONGER THE GOLD STANDARD? Do changing technologies and the rise of new centers of economic growth present an opportunity for or a threat to U.S. global economic leadership? | STEVE RADELET Center for Global Development NOURIEL ROUBINI New York University Moderated by MARK MEDISH Carnegie Endowment |
| 4:00-4:50PM | BREAKOUT SESSIONS TRACK 1: This session will analyze the role of innovation in U.S. competitiveness. TRACK 2: This session will ask what impact trade policies and a declining dollar will have on the U.S. role in a global economy. | MODERATORS Sherman Katz Mark Medish Branko Milanovic Sandra Polaski |
| 4:50-5:15PM | REPORT BACK FROM BREAKOUT SESSIONS & CONCLUDING REMARKS | |
| 5:15-6:00PM | RECEPTION | |
