

20 YEARS OF TRANSFORMATIONS IN SOUTH ASIA

Thursday, January 31, 2013

9:00 – 9:45 Introduction & Keynote Address

- Introductory Remarks
Jessica Mathews, President, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace
- Keynote Speaker
Jagdish Bhagwati, Columbia University

9:45 – 11:15 Will India Ever Be the “Locomotive of History” in South Asia?

- Where Does the Indian Economy Stand?
Arvind Subramanian, Peterson Institute for International Economics
- An Elephant in the Dragon’s Den: India’s Trade with Southeast Asia
Vikram Nehru, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace
- India: The Challenge of Human Capital
Devesh Kapur, University of Pennsylvania
- The Difficult Path to Reform: Confronting Political Corruption in India
Milan Vaishnav, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace
- Moderator: Ashley J. Tellis, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace

11:15 – 11:30 Coffee Break

11:30 – 1:00 India and the Balance of Power in Asia

- Managing the Giant Next Door: India’s Response to China’s Military Modernization
Ashley J. Tellis, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace
- Integrating, Balancing, Deterring: India’s “Look East” Policy Revisited
Frédéric Grare, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace
- India and Pakistan: The Way Out of a Deadlock
Jack Gill, Near East and South Asia Center
- Moderator: George Perkovich, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace

1:00 – 2:00 Lunch

2:00 – 3:30 The Stability of Deterrence in South Asia

- Is There an Arms Race in South Asia?
Toby Dalton, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace
- The Proliferation of Pakistan's Tactical Nuclear Weapons
Neil Joeck, Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory
- The Non-Unitary Model and Deterrence Stability in South Asia
George Perkovich, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace
- Moderator: Iskander Rehman, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace

3:30 – 3:45 Coffee Break

3:45 – 5:15 Differentiated Trajectories in the Indian Subcontinent

- Afghanistan: The Search for a Functional Political System
Sarah Chayes, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace
- The State vs. the Nation: The Quest for Political Legitimacy in Pakistan
Christine Fair, Georgetown University
- Sins of the Fathers: The Origins, Future, and Implications of the Bangladesh Governance Dilemma
Maneiza Hossain, Hudson Institute
- Moderator: Frédéric Grare, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace