

“Transformation of China’s Diplomacy: New Discipline, New Paradigm and New Strategy.”

Institute of Modern International Relations, Tsinghua University
Center for China's Statecraft and Public Diplomacy, Tsinghua University
Carnegie-Tsinghua Center for Global Policy
December 16-17 2011

Beijing Xijiao Hotel
No.18 Wangzhuang Road, Haidian District, Beijing, 100083, China

December 16, 2011

3:00-5:00pm Registration

6:00-7:30pm Welcome Dinner
Shang Yuan Restaurant, Xijiao Hotel

December 17, 2011

8:00-8:30am Registration
Ginko Hall, Xijiao Hotel

8:30-8:40am Group Photo
Hotel Square, Xijiao Hotel

8:40-10:00am Opening Ceremony
Ginko Hall, Xijiao Hotel

Host Zhao Kejin, Director, Center for China's Statecraft and Public Diplomacy, Tsinghua University, Deputy Director of Carnegie-Tsinghua Center for Global Policy

Opening Speeches

XieWeihe, Vice President, Tsinghua University

Yan Xuetong, Dean, Institute of Modern International Relations, Tsinghua University

Paul T. Haenle, Director, Carnegie-Tsinghua Center for Global Policy

Zhu Liqun, Vice President, China Foreign Affairs University

Li Baojun, Vice Dean, School of International Studies, Renmin University

Introductory Speech on the Discipline of Foreign Affairs Study in Tsinghua University

Shi Zhiqin, Dean, Department of International Relations, Tsinghua University and Resident Scholar, Carnegie-Tsinghua Center for Global Policy

10:00-10:15am

Tea Break

Ginkgo Hall, Xijiao Hotel

10:20-11:40am

Keynote Speeches

Ginkgo Hall, Xijiao Hotel

Host Shi Zhiqin, Dean of the Department of International Relations, Tsinghua University and Resident Scholar, Carnegie-Tsinghua Center for Global Policy

Current International Situation and China Foreign Affairs

Le Yucheng, Assistant Minister and Director of Policy Planning, Ministry of Foreign Affairs

China's diplomacy Transition

Shen Guofang, Former Assistant Minister for Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Chief Editor of World Affairs Press

Routes and Pipelines in 21st Century Maritime Eurasia

Robert D. Kaplan, Senior Fellow, Center for a New American Security

Creative Involvement: New trends of China Foreign Affairs

Wang Yizhou, Vice Dean, School of International Studies, Peking

11:40-12:00pm

Open Discussion and Q&A

12:00-1:30pm

Lunch

Shang Yuan Restaurant, Xijiao Hotel

1:30-3:00pm

Panel Discussion

Group 1, "Construction of the Foreign Affairs Discipline in China", Meeting Room 8

Moderators: Wang Chunying, Xing Yue

Group 2, "Strategic Transformation of China's Diplomacy", Ginkgo Hall

Moderators: Brett Blackshaw, Sun Xuefeng

Group 3, “Analysis on China’s Diplomatic Situation”, Meeting Room 3 (Closed-door Joint seminar with World Affairs Press)

Moderator: Sheng Guofang

3:00-3:15pm Tea Break

3:15-4:45pm Panel Discussion, continued

5:00-5:30pm Closing Ceremony,
Ginko Hall, Xijiao Hotel

Host Zhao Kejin, Director, Center for China's Statecraft and Public
Diplomacy, Tsinghua University; Deputy Director, Carnegie-Tsinghua
Center for Global Policy

Panel Summary

Publishing of Carnegie-Tsinghua Consensus on Chinese Diplomacy, 2011

Shi Zhiqin, Dean of Department of International Relations, Tsinghua
University and Resident Scholar, Carnegie-Tsinghua Center for Global Policy

Closing Remarks Paul Haenle, Director of Carnegie-Tsinghua Center for Global Policy

6 :00-7:30pm Dinner
Zuiai Restaurant