

WE'RE NOT THAT CARNEGIE...

[But we do get the occasional standing ovation.]

We're the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. While you won't often see our name in lights, our work on the global stage has won its share of enthusiastic applause.

And in the months and years to come, we'll continue working hard to make a difference in the global policy arena by developing new ideas and strategies to shape practical, positive outcomes from the major debates of the day.

We'll provide the kind of innovative coverage of global change you've come to expect in the pages of our award-winning magazine, FOREIGN POLICY.

We'll continue advancing the role of independent policy research at our groundbreaking Carnegie Moscow Center, and in our efforts to find common ground for progress among all players on the world stage.

To find out more, visit our website and explore in more detail the issues that are moving the world. Read articles and briefs, backed up by probing analysis and presented in clear, jargon-free writing, before they make news. And receive regular policy updates via our free e-news subscription service.

Before it's news, it's policy.
